

ROBERT ERLING

August 18, 1926

Millwright

TESTIFIED (pages 140 et seq.):

He now lives at Johnson Farm in New Brunswick's City Limits and has lived in general vicinity all his life (140).

Entered De Russeys Lane in Ford touring car from Hamilton Street on Thursday evening, September 14th and drove to point opposite a spring near the Easton Avenue end but on Hamilton Street side of crab apple tree (140-1). Was there for an hour and a quarter to an hour and a half before attention attracted (141).

Saw no wagon at any time (141).

Saw Mrs. Gibson riding on her mule between nine and ten (142).

She stopped at side of his car for half a minute and looked in (142).

CROSS EXAMINATION:

First time he ever told his story (143).

Read newspapers four years ago (143).

Saw Mrs. Gibson's story and never mentioned his seeing Mrs. Gibson until about two years ago to Nellie Lo Russell when he asked her what she thought about it (144).

Kept quiet to protect the girl with him (144).